INFORMATION FOR UNSUCCESSFUL COLORADO BAR EXAMINEES

The "NOTICE OF COLORADO BAR EXAM RESULTS" shows your MBE scaled score, Written scaled score (essay/pt combined) and your total Uniform Bar Exam (UBE) score. In order to pass the bar exam, a total score of 276 must be achieved. The following formula was used to calculate your TOTAL BAR EXAM SCORE:

$$\begin{array}{rcccl} \text{UBE} & & \text{MBE} & & \text{MEE/MPT} \\ \text{EXAM} & = & \text{SCALED} & + & \text{SCALED} \\ \text{SCORE} & & \text{SCORE} & & \text{SCORE} \end{array}$$

EXAM GRADING AND SCORING

Colorado employs holistic grading for the MEE and MPT. Holistic grading assigns a score to an answer based on a global impression of the answer's quality. Although grading guidelines outline specific elements that should be included in an answer to the question, the grade assigned to the paper goes beyond a simple tally of the elements covered and assigns a global score that includes the overall quality of the answer. All answers are scored using the same 1-6 score scale. The 1-6 scale is a relative scale, that is, a "6" is better than a "5," which is better than a "4," etc. The National Conference of Bar Examiners uses this 1-6 scale to train graders.

Scoring-MBE: Raw MBE scores (the number of questions correctly answered) are converted to scaled scores by the National Conference of Bar Examiners using a statistical formula designed to make scores comparable from exam to exam.

Scoring-MEE/MPT: Essay and performance test question scores are converted to scaled scores by the National Conference of Bar Examiners using a statistical formula designed to make scores comparable. The MEE and MPT scores are scaled to the MBE, with the MBE weighted 50%, the MEE 30%, and the MPT 20%.

After MEE and MPT answers have been graded the individual point totals are added to arrive at a raw total. Next, using a statistical formula the raw scores are converted by the National Conference of Bar Examiners and scaled to the MBE. That score is then added to the MBE scale score to arrive at a total UBE score.

Prior to implementing holistic grading in February 2013, exam answers were scored in three phases: First Scoring, Regrade and Reconciliation. With the implementation of holistic grading, the Regrade and Reconciliation phases were eliminated. This decision was not made for purposes of convenience or expediency. Rather, it was intended to improve the uniformity, reliability, and integrity of the scoring process by having all answers graded at one time when the graders are focused and calibrated. As a Uniform Bar Exam jurisdiction, all examination results are final and not open to regrading or appeal.
