

People v. Lusero and Wimmershoff, No. 00PDJ070, 5/3/01. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge accepted the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct as to Respondent James F. Lusero, and suspended him from the practice of law for a period of thirty days, all subject to stay during a one year period of probation and subject to conditions. Respondent accepted an undocumented loan from his client in violation of prior DR5-104(A), the predecessor to Colo. RPC 1.7(b), and repaid the loan during the period of his representation in violation of prior DR 5-103(B), the predecessor to Colo. RPC 1.8(e). Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the proceeding.
